RACE ANALYSIS

This will come down to how far #3 General Partner can take this field on the front end. He should get the lead, but can he hold off horses that are coming into the race in good form? The price should be right if you want to take a shot against him here as he will likely get bet pretty heavily. #8 Classic Legacy is the best closer in the race; however, he has a tendency to get too far behind. Bankroll Recommendation: 0-5% of your bankroll with a small win or exotic.

RACE ANALYSIS

This one feels like a stakes race even though it is just an allowance event. Chad Brown holds a strong hand with #5 Lady de Berry and #6 Spaliday. One of those will likely win the race, but as usual, it is hard to determine which one is ready to fire in this spot. #4 Storm Miami could play the spoiler. She should improve in her second race in the United States.

RACE ANALYSIS

This is one of the more wide-open races on the undercard. #1 Billal gets a drop in class, which should help, while the price is more than fair on him. However, #4 Looms Boldy projects to get a solid trip in this spot, while #8 Full Screen gets Irad Ortiz, Jr. back aboard today. Neither one of us have a strong opinion about this race. Bankroll Recommendation: 0-5% of your bankroll with a small win or exotic.

RACE ANALYSIS

If #5 Gun Pilot can run back to his last effort he should be tough to beat. He has been a slow developing horse; however, he might be ready to really flourish as a sprinter. The field is a little light once you get past him. #6 Gun It is coming off of a big allowance win, while #2 Rotknee might be loose on the lead if he gets away from the gate well. Bankroll Recommendation: 5-10% of your bankroll. You can't help but love #2 Casa Creed, who is one of the best turf milers in the world, and is also a local legend at Saratoga. #3 Carl Spackler is an up and comer that can beat him, though, while #1 Mysterious Night returned to the United States for Charlie Appleby. ## RACE ANALYSIS

#7 Crupi finds some class relief in this spot after back to back races against the best older horses in the world. He'll have to run down #8 Bendoog, as well as his stablemate #4 Charge It. The pace dynamic will most likely determine the winner. If it gets hot up front #7 Crupi will be tough to hold off. Bankroll Recommendation: 0-5% of your bankroll with a small win or exotic.

RACE ANALYSIS

It will be fun to see if #5 Idiomatic can win her seventh race in a row in this spot. She returned at Churchill Downs last time out for her 5-year-old debut looking better than ever. If she moves forward off of that race she will be difficult to beat no matter who she is facing this season. Bankroll Recommendation: 10-15% of your bankroll. ## RACE ANALYSIS

This was hardest race on the card to handicap. It is truly wide-open in our opinion. #8 Vlahos should improve in his second race against stakes company, while also cutting back in distance. The Baffert pair of #3 Imagination and #7 Prince of Monaco also look dangerous, while #1 Book'em Danno is back from overseas after nearly defeating Forever Young last time out. Bankroll Recommendation: 0-5% of your bankroll. #8 Cogburn has turned into one of the best turf sprinters in the country. He won over this track last year, while also winning in his 4-year-old debut last time out at Churchill Downs. This field is stacked with challengers, though, including #6 Star of Mystery and #12 Mischief Magic for Charlie Appleby. Bankroll Recommendation: 5-10% of your bankroll. ## RACE ANALYSIS

This will be a clash of the Titans between #2 National Treasure and #6 White Abarrio. Both of these horses have looked good in major races; however, National Treasure probably has a better resume going this distance. #5 Hoist the Gold also will become interesting if he gets an easy lead, which is what is projected to happen. Bankroll Recommendation: 10-15% of your bankroll. Win Wager on #2 recommended due to better odds.

RACE ANALYSIS

This might be the best race of the weekend. #9 Measured Time and #5 Program Trading are world class horses, while #7 Nations Pride is not far behind them. #1 I'm Very Busy has a shot to bounce back from a poor effort last time out, while Joseph O'Brien is bringing over a live horse in #6 Al Riffa as well. 3. #3 Mystik Dan
4. #1 Seize the Grey

RACE ANALYSIS

The pace of the race is going to be the key. If it's hot, #9 Sierra Leone will be tough to hold off down the lane. If it's not very fast, #1 Seize the Grey, #3 Mystik Dan, and #10 Mindframe will hold a trip advantage over the favorite. This should be a fascinating final leg of the Triple Crown. Bankroll Recommendation: 5-10% of your bankroll. Press your opinion in an exotic. Top choice over a few horses. He was a close third last time out in a similar race at Keeneland, which was his first start of off a long layoff. #6 Yarrow and #11 Mansa Musa have an experience edge over our top choice, though, which will make it interesting. Bankroll Recommendation: 0-5% of your bankroll.
