RACE 14:

1 1/8 MILES ON THE
DIRT
3-YEAR-OLDS

FLORIDA DERBY [G1]

OVERVIEW:

The Kentucky Derby prep races continue on Saturday with the Florida Derby, which once again has come up with a stellar field of 11 horses. From the first 67 editions, a total of 44 starters eventually captured 59 Triple Crown events, including 24 Kentucky Derby champions, 19 Preakness winners, and 16 Belmont victors. That is a clear indication of the importance of this race in terms of what is to come for the rest of the season. Flashy debut winner Hidden Scroll is the headliner, but he must bounce back from a fourth-place finish in the Fountain of Youth Stakes (G2). That race's winner, Code of Honor, is also back to run in this event, as is the runner-up, Bourbon War. We will see if these horses are ready to take a giant step towards the Kentucky Derby.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS TO HAVE A FAST PACE:

Pure Speed: Hidden Scroll, Hard Belle, Maximum Security

Pressing Speed: Bodexpress, Code of Honor

Stalkers: Everfast, Union's Destiny

Closers: Current, Harvey Wallbanger, Bourbon War, Garter and Tie

There is no race more interesting than this when it comes to the pace scenario, especially since the speed-burning Hidden Scroll drew the rail. The idea is for Hidden Scroll to try sitting behind horses in this race; however, his inward position might be extremely difficult to keep him from going to the front. Hard Belle will serve as cheap speed, and Maximum Security, who also has plenty of speed is a wild card.

TOP CHOICE: #4 BOURBON WAR

After watching the gallop-out in the Fountain of Youth Stakes (G2) it was clear that Bourbon War was just hitting his best strides in the late portions of the race. He was well clear of the others after the finish line, a good sign for this race that will be 1/16 of a mile longer. He also has a pedigree that should really excel at the longer distances. The key will be the pace. If it's hot up front, expect Bourbon War to be extremely tough to hold off down the lane.

MAJOR THREATS: #1 HIDDEN SCROLL, #7 MAXIMUM SECURITY, #9 CODE OF HONOR

It was really hard to not pick Hidden Scroll because there is still very little doubt that he has the most talent in this crop.

However, the rail draw was a disaster and does zero favors for a horse that has had trouble rating. Still, it's important to note: he is a MUST-USE on ALL exotic and multi-race wagers. Maximum Security has shown tremendous talent but is a major wild card as he moves up in class and distance for this one. Code of Honor is a logical choice after winning the Fountain of Youth last time out.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #3 HARVEY WALLBANGER

No matter where this colt runs, he is always around at the end to at least hit the board. Even though he won a weak running of the Holy Bull Stakes (G2), he could still make a small amount of noise here if the pace sets up well for him. He is a grinder that will come with a decent run down the lane.

OTHERS: #2 CURRENT, #5 EVERFAST, #6 HARD BELLE, #8 BODEXPRESS, #10 UNION'S DESTINY, #11 GARTER AND TIE

Several entries seemed like easy tosses because the top horses in this event are that good. Out of this group, Current could turn some heads with a pedigree that should suit this race well, even though we have yet to see it on the race track.

RACE 13:

1 1/2 MILES ON THE
TURF
4-YEAR-OLDS AND UP

PAN-AMERICAN STAKES [G2]

OVERVIEW:

A race that traditionally draws a tough field is no different this year. A solid field of nine horses will contest the event, and several could have a big 2019 in various turf events throughout North America. Overall, this may be the toughest stakes race on the undercard. Anytime a field goes this marathon distance on the turf, it's a "Box 'em Up & Call 'em Home" kind of event.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE WILL HAVE A SLOW PACE:

Pure Speed: Village King

Pressing Speed: Soglio

Stalkers: Melmich, Salute the Colonel

Closers: Focus Group, Canessar, Nessy, Highland Sky, Bigger Picture

They should be crawling up front, and at first, you'd think that would benefit the front-runners, but it actually favors the closers because they don't have as much ground to make up when making their big run at the end. Expect the field to be bunched closely together when turning for home, where it will then become a matter of who can close the fastest down the lane. The one horse that may be able to sneak away on the front end is Village King, who nearly did it last time before getting beaten a length in the Mac Diarmida Stakes (G2).

TOP CHOICE: #1 FOCUS GROUP

It is always hard to go against trainer Chad Brown when enters a turf race anywhere in the United States. Brown has had tremendous success at Gulfstream Park once again this year and has been prepping this horse for this spot to close out the meet. This will be his seasonal debut; however, Brown hits at 46% off of a layoff of 126-210 days. Those numbers are hard to beat.

MAJOR THREATS: #2 MELMICH, #4 CANESSAR, #9 BIGGER PICTURE

Melmich has had a solid winter/spring in South Florida, which should have him ready for a big Woodbine meet coming up next. He should compete in this group very well. Canessar ran fifth off of a long layoff in his last start, which should have him better prepared for a top effort. Bigger Picture is coming off of his third straight John B. Connally Turf Cup Stakes (G3) victory at Sam Houston Race Park, showing that he still is in good form at the age of 8.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #3 VILLAGE KING, #8 SOGLIO

Village King can win this race with a trip that should see him all alone on the front end. He nearly pulled it off in his last race, losing narrowly in the Mac Diarmida Stakes (G2). If he can kick a couple of lengths clear up the backside, then he will squarely be the one to catch when they turn for home. It's the same deal for Soglio, who should have the tactical advantage of sitting just behind the pace.

OTHERS: #5 NESSY, #6 HIGHLAND SKY, #7 SALUTE THE COLONEL

All three of these horses will have a decent shot to make an impact in this evenly-matched field. At times, each horse in this group has had moments that would make him competitive here; however, they have all fallen off of form lately, which means that we will need to see some solid improvement out of them here.

RACE 10:

1 MILE ON THE TURF
4-YEAR-OLDS AND UP,
FILLIES AND MARES

SAND SPRINGS STAKES

OVERVIEW:

This 1-mile event should get interesting in a hurry with a strong field of 9 horses signed on to take a shot in this competitive spot. The seasonal debut of Proctor's Ledge highlights the race. The mare is a perfect 2-for-2 at Gulfstream Park and possesses a bit of a class edge over her rivals. This will be an interesting 2019 launch point for the daughter of Ghostzapper.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS LIKE IT WILL HAVE A FAST PACE:

Pure Speed: Valedictorian, Too Charming
Pressing Speed: Mrs. Ramona G., Andina Del Sur
Stalkers: Fire Key, Quebec
Closers: Vendita, Midnight Soiree, Proctor's Ledge

With Valedictorian in the race, it ensures a fast pace. She has shown consistent speed in all of her recent starts. Too Charming will also be prominent early, with Andina Del Sur and Mrs. Ramona G. stalking/pressing. This looks like it has the potential to set up very well for the closers, which will make Proctor's Ledge very dangerous.

TOP CHOICE: #9 PROCTOR'S LEDGE

It's tough to go against Proctor's Ledge in a spot like this after she has tackled much tougher throughout her career. She has been within a few lengths of horses like Sistercharlie, which shows her class in a major way. She is also 2-for-2 at Gulfstream Park and will have a perfect pace setup for her 2019 debut effort.

MAJOR THREATS: #4 QUEBEC, #5 VALEDICTORIAN, #8 ANDINA DEL SUR

Quebec has run well against the turf mares in California, so this change of scenery makes her interesting. Valedictorian has been solid at this meet, hitting the board in four stakes efforts and winning the Suwanee River Stakes (G3). Andina Del Sur seems to always be around in races like this.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #6 TOO CHARMING

After closing out 2018 with two straight victories, Too Charming will look to keep it going here. There is no doubt that she could get the lead, but the main issue is how quickly the pace will go. If she can get the lead by herself, then she will be dangerous.

OTHERS: #1 VENDITA, #2 FIRE KEY, #3 MRS. RAMONA G., #7 MIDNIGHT SOIREE

These horses look like clear tosses in a race that features several nice horses who are in form. Someone winning from this group would be quite surprising.

GULFSTREAM PARK OAKS [G2]

OVERVIEW:

This is always a race to watch when thinking about the upcoming Kentucky Oaks (G1). The Derby has gotten most of the headlines, but the 2019 Oaks trail has been a wild one as well. At this point, somebody needs to step up and take command of this wide-open division. The hunt for that horse turns to Gulfstream Park with the running of this prestigious race. A small field of 7 will line up for the shot to earn a way into the Kentucky Oaks starting gate.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS TO HAVE A SLOW PACE:

Pure Speed: Dunbar Road, Cookie Dough

Pressing Speed: Shacklette

Stalkers: Point of Honor

Closers: Safta, Bella Ciao, Champagne Anyone

Speed should be at a premium in this contest, with only two true speed horses signed on to run. A small field usually leads to a slower pace to begin with, which could especially be the case here. The speedy Cookie Dough nearly wired the field last time out in the Davona Dale Stakes (G2), while Dunbar Road was a wire-to-wire winner on debut. Both horses could have an advantage in this spot.

TOP CHOICE: #3 POINT OF HONOR

After two excellent performances, it is time to try her hand in a Kentucky Oaks prep. She broke her maiden at Gulfstream Park by 6 lengths while going this distance, then shipped to Tampa Bay Downs, where she crushed her foes in the Sun-coast Stakes. This is a higher level of competition, but she horse has shown a lot of ability in her first two starts.

MAJOR THREATS: #6 DUNBAR ROAD, #7 COOKIE DOUGH

We'll find out if experience means much in this spot as Dunbar Road will try to win with only one race under her belt. It was a good one, though, as she won a maiden special weight by almost 9 lengths going 1 mile here. On the other hand, Cookie Dough has a lot of experience, including a head loss last time out in the Davona Dale. Both will show speed early.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #5 CHAMPAGNE ANYONE

This was supposed to be the only horse who might have a chance to upset Jaywalk last time out in the Davona Dale; however, she struggled to a third-place finish. Despite the disappointing effort, she has still shown enough talent to play her - if her price floats up to a reasonable number.

OTHERS: #1 SAFTA, #4 BELLA CIAO, #2 SHACKLETTE

It would be a big surprise if any of these three got the job done. Trainer Dale Romans won this race last year with Coach Rocks; however, Shacklette does not look to be as talented as that filly was at this point last season.

PICKS AND PLAYS:

Bet to Win: #3 Point of Honor – Confidence Level: 2.5 out of 5

RACE 6:

1 MILE ON THE TURF 3-YEAR-OLDS, FILLIES

SANIBEL ISLAND STAKES

OVERVIEW:

The two headlining events on this card feature races for 3-year-olds on the dirt, but this one has 3-year-old fillies running on the turf. Like normal, trainer Chad Brown will have a strong presence in the race; however, this field does look to have a lot of balance amongst the entrants. It's a smaller field, with just eight entries, but it has a chance to be very exciting.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS TO HAVE A LONE SPEED HORSE

Pure Speed: Trenchtown Cat

Pressing Speed: Belle Laura

Stalkers: Vow to Recover, A Bit Special, Positive Skew, Seranitsa

Closers: La Australiana, Scat Mommy

On paper, it definitely looks like the Trenchtown Cat will be all alone on the front end. If so, she will be very tough to run down, especially considering her powerful win last time out on the turf while sprinting. The only question mark for her will be the stretch out in distance today to 1 mile. If she falters, then Belle Laura should be in good position to get first jump on the others.

TOP CHOICE: #4 BELLE LAURA

Even though Brown usually dominates this division, let's try to take a small shot against him for the win with Belle Laura. This filly showed a lot of class as a 2-year-old, then made a nice 3-year-old debut last time out, finishing third in the Herecomesthebride Stakes (G3). She was 1 1/4 lengths behind Cambier Parc, who would be a strong favorite in this race. Look for her to run big in her second start off of the layoff.

MAJOR THREATS: #3 A BIT SPECIAL, #5 TRENCHTOWN CAT, #6 POSITIVE SKEW

A Bit Special is a must-play after winning three straight and has never finished worse than second in five lifetime starts. Trenchtown Cat is the pace play here, coming out of sprint races. She'll be on the lead; it will just be a matter of how long she can hold onto it. Positive Skew has Brown on her side, which means a ton, and she is coming off of an impressive win last out.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #2 VOW TO RECOVER

You can't forget about this one, who has been in the mix in similar races for most of her career. There is also no doubt that this 1-mile distance is where she excels. That makes her dangerous, especially at a decent price.

OTHERS: #1 LA AUSTRALIANA, #7 SCAT MOMMY, #8 SERANITSA

These three seem to be a bit outclassed and will really have to step up their games in order to make an impact here.

PICKS AND PLAYS:

Bet to Win: ##4 Belle Laura – Confidence Level: 2.5 out of 5

RACE 5:

1 MILE ON THE TURF
3-YEAR-OLDS

CUTLER BAY STAKES

OVERVIEW:

A United States turf race without trainer Chad Brown is pretty hard to find, yet that is exactly what we have here. This is a field of just 7, but don't let that fool you; this is one of the hardest on the card to predict. Nearly every horse will have a solid shot when the field turns for home.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS LIKE IT WILL HAVE A VERY SLOW PACE

Pure Speed: Marquee Prince

Pressing Speed: Art G Is Back, Insider Trading

Stalkers: Forever Mo, Stirling Drive

Closers: Seismic Wave, Candy Crushem

Get ready for them to crawl up front in this contest. Nobody in this field wants the lead, so the opening 1/4-mile could be extremely slow for a 1-mile event. With this kind of setup, jockey Javier Castellano will likely send Marquee Prince to the front, considering he is the only one who has shown the ability to do so. If he does, then he might be ultra-tough to catch.

TOP CHOICE: #3 MARQUEE PRINCE

From a pace standpoint, this horse makes all the sense in the world. Nobody looks to have real speed in this spot, which makes Marquee Prince look awfully dangerous on the front end. Trainer Brad Cox doesn't ship to Gulfstream Park all that often, but when he does, he has proven to be very difficult to beat. He rides a two-race winning streak heading into this event.

MAJOR THREATS: #1 SEISMIC WAVE, #4 ART G IS BACK

There is no doubt that Seismic Wave is on the improve, with his best race coming last time out when breaking his maiden by a 1/2-length. However, he has never run at this 1-mile distance, having run three times going longer to start his career. Art G Is Back comes out of the tough Palm Beach Stakes (G3) last time out, where he finished a decent fourth to the talented A Thread of Blue. He should find this spot to be a bit easier.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #2 FOREVER MO, #5 STIRLING DRIVE

Forever Mo figures to be a factor in this spot after winning 2 of his last 3 races. From a speed figure standpoint, he is just a fraction below the top choices. He can win this race with a small step forward. Stirling Drive has decent back class and was recently gelded, which could lead to improvement

OTHERS: #6 INSIDER TRADING, #7 CANDY CRUSHEM

Insider Trading is the logical throw out in this field; however, Candy Crushem is in with a shot. He broke his maiden last time out by a nose while going this distance in an improved effort. That race may have been a fluke, though, so we'll see if he can repeat it.

GULFSTREAM PARK MILE STAKES [G2]

OVERVIEW:

Kicking off the stakes action on this amazing 14-race card, this event has only drawn a small field of 6. That's due mostly to the presence of Prince Lucky, who will be the most likely winner on the entire card. He cruised to victory in his 2019 debut and signaled that he is a horse to watch this season. This will be an exciting race to see if he builds off of that fantastic effort.

RACE SHAPE: THIS RACE LOOKS TO HAVE ONE LONE-SPEED HORSE

Pure Speed: Prince Lucky

Pressing Speed: ale of Silence, Guy Caballero

Stalkers: All Golden

Closers: Millionaire Runner, Be Gone Daddy

It is hard to imagine Prince Lucky not getting the lead in this spot. He does not need the lead to succeed; he just looks like the fastest out of the gate. If somebody else decides to set crazy factions, then he can also rate with ease, which is going to make him extremely difficult to beat in this spot. It's always tough when the heavy favorite also looks to have a pace advantage.

TOP CHOICE: #4 PRINCE LUCKY

Simply put, this is easily the best horse in the race. He will be impossible to beat if he runs back to his last race, a 6-length domination of the Hal's Hope Stakes (G3).

MAJOR THREATS: #1 TALE OF SILENCE

This might be the only horse who can give Prince Lucky a run for his money here. Last time out, he was a well-beaten fourth in the Hal's Hope Stakes (G3); however, that was his first start in nearly a year. He is returns in better form, making him the only logical horse to compete with the top choice.

LONGSHOTS TO USE: #6 GUY CABALLERO

If you want to try to get crazy with a big price, then this is probably the one to play. He will go off at higher odds than he should because of Prince Lucky's presence, which makes him playable. Prince Lucky will really have to falter, but if he does, then this horse is a logical candidate.

OTHERS: #2 MILLIONAIRE RUNNER, #3 BE GONE DADDY, #5 ALL GOLDEN

This group will have to show great improvement in order to compete for top honors in this event. None look good enough to compete with the top two choices.
